This comprehensive museum exhibit brings the Memphis Music story to life. It tells of the musical pioneers of all racial and socio-economic backgrounds who created the musical sound that changed the cultural complexion of the world forever. This is an entertaining and educational story of music and civil rights your students will love!

- Conveniently located in downtown Memphis at FedExForum, the city’s premier sports & entertainment complex.
- Open 7 days a week from 9:30 am - 7:00 pm CST.
- Self-guided tour with MP3 audio guide units and headsets, which also feature over 100 songs from rock, soul and blues music history.
- Special pricing for all youth and student groups, with comp admissions available for teachers and chaperones. Earlier admission times also available.
- Performing Songwriter Magazine says that Rock ‘n’ Soul “may be the single best exhibition of American musical history in the country”!

IT’S LIKE A CONCERT WITH DISPLAY CASES!

191 Beale Street, Ste. 100 • Memphis, TN 38103
FedExForum • Downtown • (901) 205-2533
memphisrocknsoul.org